

From the President

Winter has truly arrived now and it's great to see everyone enjoying our great game, from the Minkey kids to the O/60s and everyone in-between.

Having played in the torrential rain on Saturday, I can confirm our replacement Turf drains well (!) and is a magnificent asset. The Club has received enormous support from Aquinas College however we require more funds. All donations made through the Australian Sports Foundation portal are fully tax deductible. Our target is to receive 1,000 contributions and raise $250,000. We have a wonderful facility and a wonderful Club. It is now time to dig deep and contribute, noting contributions however small are gratefully received and vital to the success of this appeal. A big thankyou to those that have contributed already, we recognise your support at: <https://reds.com.au/turf-donations/>

The Aquinas Turf also plays host to our Premier 1s Women and Men this weekend; it's going to be a cracking day where we show our appreciation to all of our Sponsors and hold the Door Prize/Cash Giveaway. See details in this Redletter and on the Reds Facebook page. You need to buy tickets beforehand to be in the running to win $2,000 cash!

It's important our club supports our sponsors however we can; you should have a copy of the Sponsors booklet listing all of our current sponsors to give them your business. They are vitally important so if you are looking for insurance, planning to travel, selling a house, need a plumber, need a gym or 30 other activities please contact our sponsors first to give them first opportunity.

See you around the grounds.

Team Reports

Australian Masters -World Cup Win

Whilst administering the flu vaccination to your correspondent, club stalwart & sawbones Bede Rogers modestly conveyed the information that he had singlehandedly defeated the Germans in Italy and won the Masters World Cup for Australia. Further investigation revealed Bede's confidence of a victory was such that he had booked his flight home for 3 hours after the Final and subsequently missed the ensuing

Our Director of Sponsors, Bottie, continues his excellent work.

Through your team manager you should by now have received the Sponsor Services Directory which gives you access to all our valued sponsors. If not, grab a copy from the bar next trip to the club.
